ONE DAY MOBILE SAMPLER

MORNING

• Museum of Mobile

Step across the street from Fort Condé and visit the Museum of Mobile, located in the Southern Market/Old City Hall, a National Historic Landmark, built in 1857. View the rich history of Native American, Colonial, African-American and Antebellum influences that come alive in the museum's 21st century exhibits and Discovery Room, a hands-on gallery for children and adults.

• Mobile Carnival Museum

National Geographic says the coronations in Mobile rival those of real coronations in Europe. In an historic mansion, you can be part of this royal court. Then, join the mystical Order of Joy in its secret den. Catch beads and doubloons from a masked rider. Climb aboard a rocking float. Throw to the cheering crowd. It's a royal invitation to get rowdy with America's first thrill ride: Mardi Gras!

• Historic Mobile Guided Tour

Drive through history as your guide takes you through several of Mobile's eight historic districts. Absorb the beauty of the architecture and the heritage that surrounds you when passing through the Church Street East and the DeTonti Historic Districts. Relive another era when entering the Oakleigh Garden District as you view large porches, Southern architecture and Spanish moss hanging from live oak trees. (Museum house and attractions tours can be included).

• USS ALABAMA Battleship Memorial Park

Relive America's history at USS ALABAMA Battleship Memorial Park. Tour World War II Battleship USS ALABAMA, winner of 9 Battle Stars, WW II Submarine USS DRUM, now displayed above ground, Vietnam PBR River Patrol Boat, B-52 D "Calamity Jane" bomber, A-12 "Blackbird" spyplane, Tuskegee Airmen P-51D Mustang, F-16 Falcon and 20 other historic warbirds from the past seven decades.

AFTERNOON

• Bellingrath Gardens and Home

"The Charm Spot of the Deep South." Enjoy 65 acres of year-round floral pageantry in a Southern estate garden. Visit the Delchamps Gallery of Boehm Porcelain, the largest public collection of Boehm porcelain in the United States. Tour the Bellingrath Museum Home, featured on A&E's America's Castles series, and filled with priceless antiques and furnishings. Relax on a scenic cruise of Fowl River aboard the Southern Belle River Cruiser.

• Dauphin Island

Only a short drive away, Dauphin Island is just off the Alabama coast, making it the southernmost point in the state. A barrier island, it has protected the coast from many storms and hurricanes...and Union soldiers. Fort Gaines, established in 1821, played a major role in the Battle of Mobile Bay, the largest naval battle of the Civil War. In addition to the Fort, there are Indian shell mounds rich in legend, and the Estuarium where you can see live marine life in their natural habitat.

DO IT ALL IN MOBILE BAY - 3 DAYS 2 NIGHTS

Day 1 - MORNING

• Fort Condé Museum and Welcome Center

Begin your tour by visiting Fort Condé, a replica of the original site built by the French in 1711. Costumed soldiers will lead you through the complex and recount the 300 year history under the French, British, Spanish and American flags. Guests can also browse through the Visitor Center that includes a gift shop and big-screen video of Mobile.

• Condé-Charlotte House

This house is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and depicts the periods of Mobile's history under five flags - French, British, Spanish, Confederacy and American. Each room in the house is furnished to reflect one of these periods or nationality. A walled Spanish garden of late 18th century design complements the house as well as a kitchen filled with late 19th and 20th century equipment and equally interesting bedrooms upstairs. The variety and authenticity of the furnishings make this house a fascinating museum.

• Museum of Mobile

Walk down the street one block and visit the Museum of Mobile, located in the Southern Market/Old City Hall, a National Historic Landmark built in 1857. View the rich history of Native American, Colonial, African-American and Antebellum influences that come alive in the museum's 21st century exhibits and Discovery Room, a hands-on gallery for children and adults.

Day 2 - AFTERNOON

• Historic Driving Tour

Drive through history as your coach takes you through several of Mobile's eight historic districts. Absorb the beauty of the architecture and the heritage that surrounds you when passing through the Church Street East and the DeTonti Historic Districts. Relive another era when entering the Oakleigh Garden District as you view large porches, Southern architecture and Spanish moss hanging from live oak trees.

• Oakleigh Historic Complex

Visit the Historic Oakleigh Complex, where period costumed docents guide visitors through three museums on one site. The Oakleigh Mansion (c. 1833) and the Cox-Deasy Cottage (c. 1850), feature 19th and 20th century furnishings. The Cook's House (c. 1850) features an authentic interpretation of the lives of those who lived and worked on the estate during the 19th century.

• Richard's DAR House

This handsome historic home, a Town House of the Italianate style, tells in superb architectural detail of fashionable life during Mobile's affluent antebellum days. The House is famous for its iron lace that lavishly decorates the front façade.

Day 3 - MORNING

• Bragg-Mitchell Mansion

The Bragg Mitchell Mansion is completely restored to replicate the antebellum era, with fine antiques, oriental rugs and exquisite draperies. The massive double parlors, tearoom, verandah, lavish dining room, crystal chandeliers and candelabras reflect an ongoing commitment to the hospitality and sumptuous entertaining of a bygone era.

• Mobile Museum of Art

This Museum is the largest art museum along the Gulf Coast from New Orleans to Tampa. It hosts special exhibitions from world-famous museums and collectors throughout the year. In addition, the museum's permanent collection includes American, European, Asian and African art spanning over 2,000 years of cultural history. Enjoy traditional as well as contemporary paintings, sculpture and fine crafts, including an exquisite collection of glass art.

• Mobile Botanical Gardens

Just across the street from the Art Museum, the Mobile Botanical Gardens offers 100 acres of cultivated areas including native azaleas, an herb garden, a camellia grove, fern glade, and a wheel-chair accessible Founders Garden featuring fragrance and texture plants.

• Spring Hill College

Just a short drive away is historic Spring Hill College, site of the oldest, private higher learning institution in Alabama. Founded in 1832, this Jesuit College is considered one of the best in the country. The grounds are beautiful, lined with majestic live oaks and large azaleas.

Day 3 - AFTERNOON

• Historic Blakeley Park and Delta Explorer

Walk the Blakely Battlefield, site of the last battle of the Civil War and hike beautiful nature trails. Enjoy eco-tourism at its best, take a leisurely ride on the Delta Explorer and delve into the beautiful Mobile Tensaw Delta. See alligators, majestic marshland, water birds and lush habitat. You will be amazed at the many natural wonders just a short drive from downtown Mobile.

• Fairhope Shopping

Just across Mobile Bay, is a quaint little town with captivating old southern charm and picturesque landscaping. The downtown area is warm and inviting where you can shop and dine with the diverse and unique collection of merchants' offerings. Visitors will find everything from antiques and local art to candy and fudge. Fairhope stores are known for their artsy flair with merchandise that is truly unique and in some cases one of a kind from local artists.
